

Invitation letter

Dear _____,

We are pleased to announce that the 17th SCBA International Symposium will be held during July 24-28, 2019 in Kunming, Yunnan Province, China. This symposium is co-organized by the Society of Chinese Bioscientists in America (SCBA), Yunnan University, and the Genetics Society of China (GSC), and sponsored by Yunnan University. Professor Paul Liu (the President of SCBA), Ke-Qin Zhang (the Chairman of the Academic Committee, and the former Vice President of Yunnan University), and Yong-Biao Xue (the President of GSC), will share executive responsibilities of this symposium.

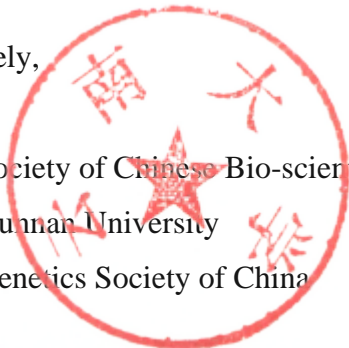

The theme of this international symposium is “Bioscience for All, All for Bioscience”. This symposium will focus on new development and advances in biomedicine, biodiversity, agriculture and plant sciences. A number of world-famous scientists, including Dr. Brian Kobilka, a Nobel Prize Laureate, and many members of the National Academy of Sciences, USA or the Chinese Academy of Sciences, will give keynote speeches or plenary lectures. Furthermore, the Symposium will host a workshop with journal editors from Cell, Science, and Cell Research to discuss writing, submission and publication of research papers. Moreover, the Symposium will also host a special SCBA Presidential Forum on human genome editing and a Career Development Workshop.

Please find the meeting programs, registration information, abstract submission procedure, and hotel room reservation information at the following website: <http://scba.medmeeting.org/cn>.

We sincerely invite you to attend the 17th SCBA International Symposium. You will learn the cutting-edge discoveries in the life sciences from world-renowned scientists. You will meet many old friends and make new friends to enhance your research collaborations.

Sincerely,

Society of Chinese Bio-scientists in America
Yunnan University
Genetics Society of China
